Dear Students, Parents/Carers & Staff,

Queen's Birthday Public Holiday

Just a reminder that this Monday (8/6/15) is the Queen's Birthday Public Holiday and there will be no school. Enjoy the long weekend if you're not working.

High School Transition Days

The next Ingham High School Transition Days for the Year 6 students are Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23 and 24. There is also a Parent Information Evening commencing at 5:30pm on Tuesday, June 23 in the Ingham High Library.

Home Reading

Reading is one of our priorities this year and I encourage you to continue ensuring that your child/ren is/are reading every night. If this is done consistently, you will likely see improvements in confidence and fluency. Parents are asked to sign the reading logs every night as evidence of home reading.

This week, to further develop a love of reading, students have borrowed books of their choice from the school library. This will be a weekly occurrence meaning that students can renew or return the books every week.

Fire Education

On Tuesday (9/6/15), students from Prep to Year 2 will participate in a fire education session with members of the Queensland Fire Service. There is no cost for this initiative.

Camp Notes

In addition to this newsletter, students will be bringing home some camp permission and medical forms. Please complete and return these as soon as possible.

Student Success

This week I would like to recognise Saxon and Summer. Both students have been working hard learning their sight words and moving up the levels. This shows great dedication to learning and the desire to improve their reading. Well done Saxon and Summer!

Reading Strategy of the Week

Skip the unknown word and come back to it after reading the rest of the sentence. This may help by providing context.

Don't be afraid to say hello!

Acting Principal
